

Introduction

Daniel has his second dream in the third year of the reign of the Babylonian King Belshazzar. More information is forthcoming as God shares with His servant His plan for the future redemption of the world and the elimination of sin. Without equivocation, God is making it crystal clear that He is in Full control of all that takes place in the affairs of man. Daniel is given a dream that takes the prophet from his current day to the end of human dominion. It is interesting to note that scholars call Daniel 8-12 a collection of expansion prophecies – they build upon each other. Let’s carefully study the message of Daniel 8 in this week’s lesson as we review “Daniel’s Second Dream.”

¹⁶ And I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, who called and said, "Gabriel, make this man understand the vision."¹⁷ So he came near where I stood, and when he came I was afraid and fell on my face; but he said to me, "Understand, son of man, that the vision refers to the time of the end."¹⁸ Now, as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep with my face to the ground; but he touched me, and stood me upright.¹⁹ And he said, "Look, I am making known to you what shall happen in the latter time of the indignation; for at the appointed time the end shall be."
