

Introduction:

Revelation's prophetic message to seven churches concludes as the prophet is now given messages from the throne room of God. The following eight chapters of this book, which will constitute the first half of the prophecy, are delivered before God's seat of dominion and authority. Chapter 4 begins with John's attention being drawn to an "open door" that reveals a vision of this great throne room and the "One" that sat upon the throne. It appears that after the messages of the Seven Churches, it is fitting and encouraging that a vision is given of the majesty and wonder of our great God, who promises that His people will be victorious in the end. With John, let us receive and embrace the blessing of this vision of "The Throne Room of God."

Focus Text

<sup>1</sup>After these things I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven. And the first voice which I heard was like a trumpet speaking with me, saying, “Come up here, and I will show you things which must take place after this.”
